

I'm against giving the media conglomerates any more power.

Local and public broadcasting must be maintained to secure untainted information.

That is the basis of a democracy, "an informed electorate."